Look to This Day
For Yesterday Is but a Dream
And Tomorrow Is Only a Vision—
But Today Well-lived
Makes Every Yesterday
A Dream of Happiness,
And Every Tomorrow
A Vision of Hope—
Look Well Therefore to This Day!

ANGELICUS 1969

presented by the senior class

dominican commercial high school, jamaica, new york

Today Is a Present Wrapped in Sun or Packaged
In Silvery Rain. Today Is a Present Offered Once and Never Given Again.

Within the Sands of Time,
My Hopes and Dreams Lie,
Waiting to Be Sprung Free.

Tomorrow Offers the Chance of Beginning Anew.

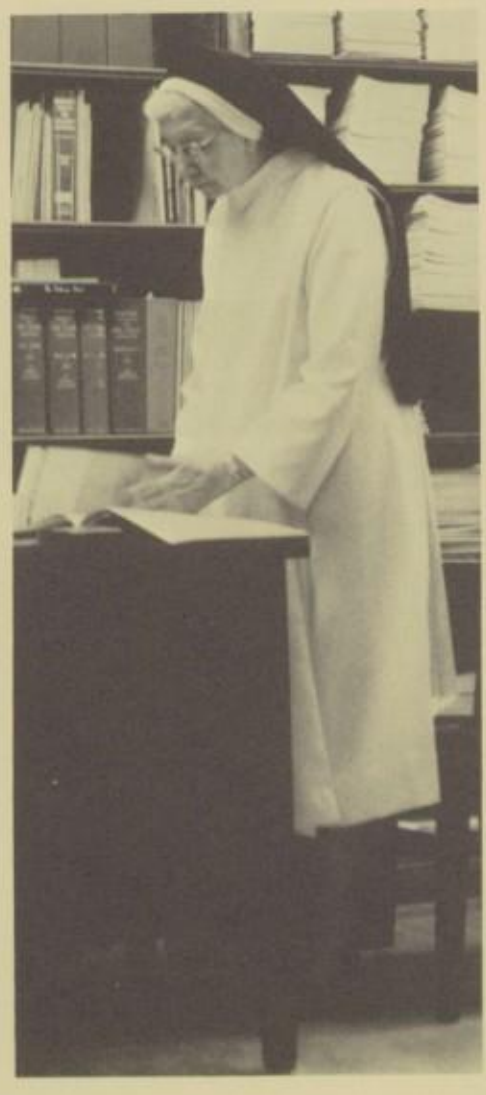
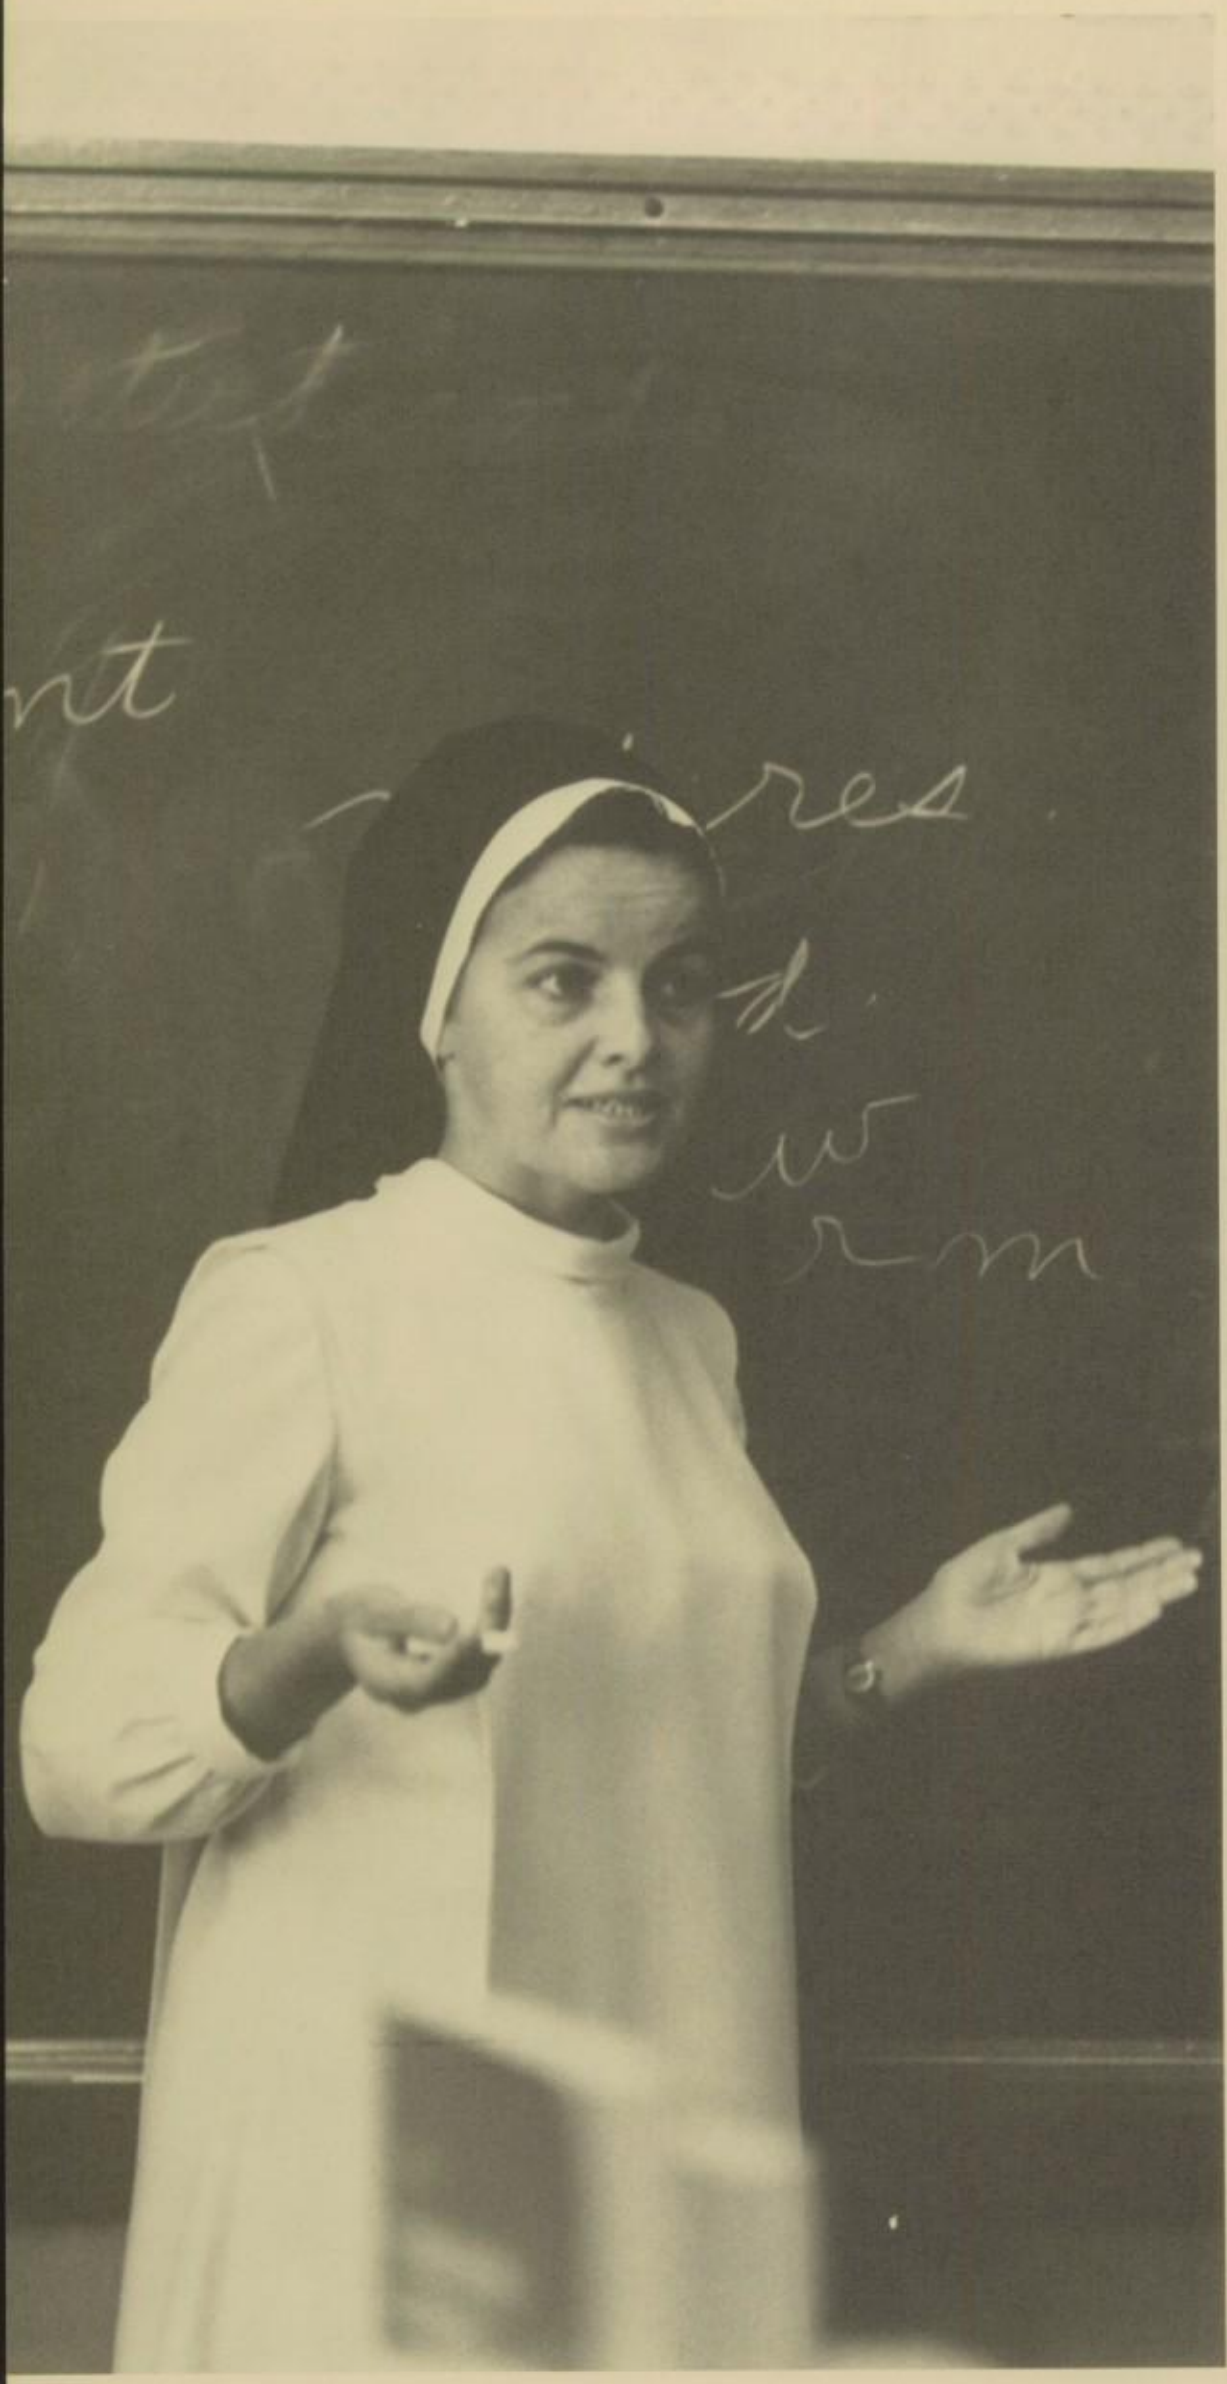
Tommorrow Is a Quest.
Tomorrow Is Built of the Dreams We Dream, the Thoughts We Think and the Hopes We Harbor in our Hearts.



Today Is the Day We Live in, the Week, the Year, the Decade.
Tomorrow Is the Day We Hope for.

Our Todays Are Time for the Making of Wishes
And Having Great Dreams.



Tomorrow Is an Empty Page
Upon Which We Can Inscribe
Whatever Our Hearts Desire.

As Pure and Magical as a Child's Laughter, Tomorrow Is.

The Dawning of a New Day Brings with It Courage and Hope Unsurpassed.

DEDICATION

The Dominican Sister

Quietly determined at fulfillment of His Word—
Go forth and teach all nations.
Striving to live and to serve in accordance with the sacred vows
she has taken.

Look to where there is need;
You can see her—eager to serve the needy, the sick,
the young, the old.
They are all her brothers and sisters in Christ.

Her warmth is like a fireplace on a snowy night;
Her smile, the rainbow splendor so welcome after a storm.
Her eyes, the manifestation of heaven-wondrous glory.
Her voice, likened unto flute or bassoon, talks endlessly of hope and encouragement.

At first, perhaps, elusive and then, friendship—nectar spills from a brimming heart.

Accept it humbly, readily,
There can be few friends as valuable as a Dominican sister.

FACULTY AND CURRICULUM

Yesterday . . .
Like mintage spent, is past recall;
Its echo dimmed beyond time's wall.
Tomorrow . . .
It never promised earthly man,
Nor does it often fit a plan.
Today . . .
Is gold that covers hills and dell,
And rich are they who use it well.

PRINCIPAL

Governing our school for the past two years has been our principal, Sister Miriametta. Sister's interest has initiated many new developments. The modernization of the Secretarial Practice Room is one improvement that greeted students as they returned to classes this year. To any student who has a problem, Sister's door is always open. If she is not in her office, you may meet her in the halls, for she is a vital part of Dominican Commercial.

Sharing a joy with a Senior.

A moment out of a busy schedule for a picture.

Gee, Father, I never looked at it that way before!

Father Myles Scheiner

COUNSELORS

Our two spiritual counselors at D.C. are Fathers Graham and Myles. Father Graham was also with us last year and invited students to talk to him in his office every Thursday. This proved to be very successful, and we now have Father Myles as well, who takes time from his many duties to come to D.C. every Monday. This year the senior class was honored to have Father Myles offer their Ring Day Mass. We know the advice that these two men have given us will prove to be very beneficial in our future years.

And now a word from my sponsor.

So what else is new?

Hotter than ah, ah, ah!

GENERAL OFFICE

Did you lose something? Do you want some information? Do you have to borrow something? The General Office is the best place to go. Under the direction of Sister Lorraine and Sister Joseph Maria, the school runs efficiently along with the assistance of the Corps girls. A new addition to the office is Mrs. Thomas, who is also ready and willing to help.

GUIDANCE and PLACEMENT

In the Kaupert building of D.C. all students can find help in their programs, part-time jobs, college advice, and placement after graduation. This year the Guidance Room has been modernized to include new carpeting, draperies, and partitions separating the two offices. A welcome is extended to all students to come with any problems to the Guidance Room.

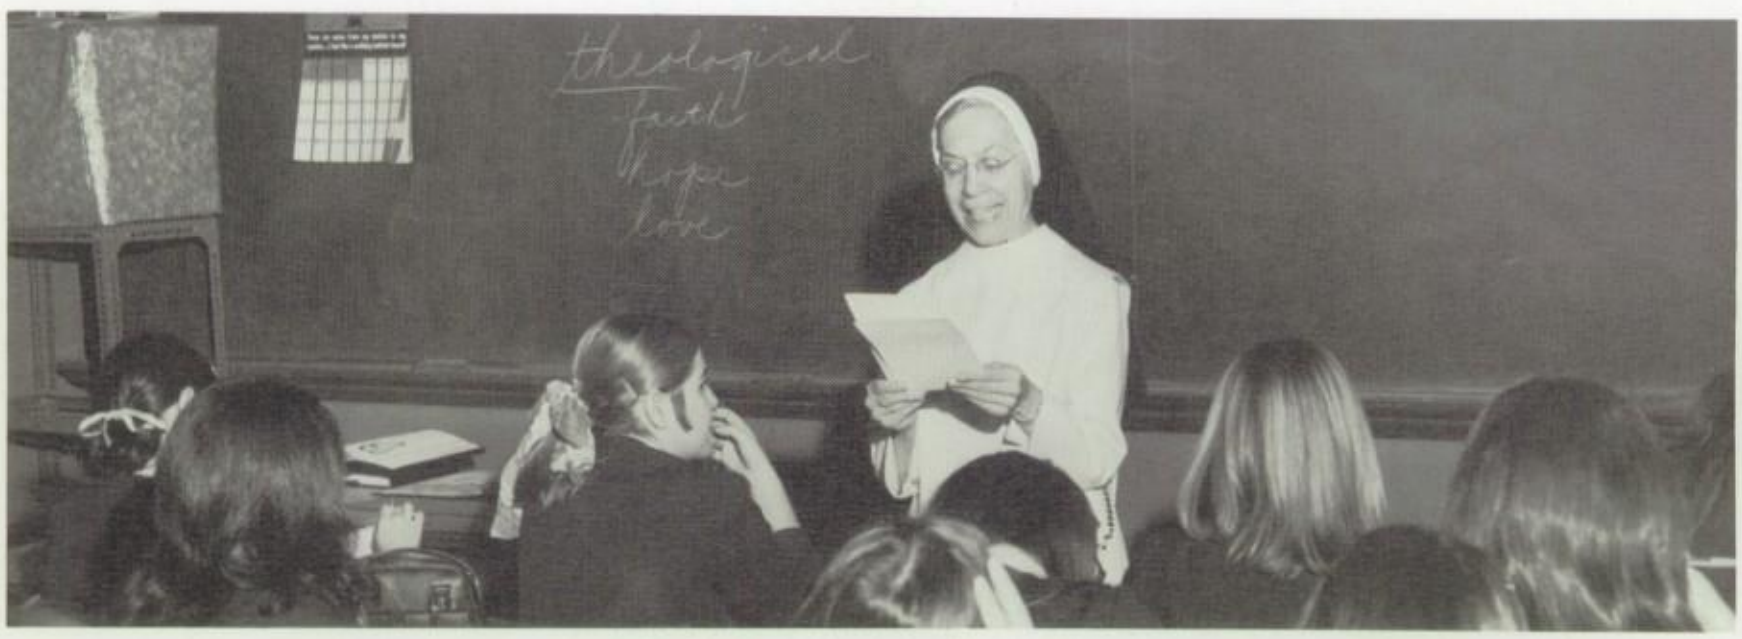
RELIGION

"Sons of God" is the term used to describe each and every one of us. In our many religion periods throughout the year, we are taught how to live up to this title of glory.

Under the guidance of Sister Loretta Dolores, our religion department moderator, the girls of Dominican Commercial are made more aware of their Christian obligations.

We are taught not only to practice our religion openly, but to live it in everyday life in matters both large and small.



We are pleased to announce the discovery of the fourth theological virtue.

ENGLISH

English classes broaden our views on life. While learning how to speak and write correctly, we enlarge our knowledge of both English and American literature. We probe the inner meanings of literature and try to apply the meanings to our own selves. As Department Chairman, Sister Jeanne Dolores sees that this curriculum is basically followed so that when we become part of the business world, we will be able to apply these lessons, speaking and writing intelligently.

Oh, you shouldn't have. But I'm glad you did.

And what lies ahead?

SECRETARIAL PRACTICE

For three years we learned the basic essentials of a business education. In our Senior year, we use these acquired skills in the Secretarial Practice rooms. There, under the guidance of our teacher, we learn how to be effective secretaries and how to run our office efficiently. We make practical use of our shorthand and typing, while we also learn to use a variety of modern office machinery. But just as important as these skills, we strive for our personal goals of good character, integrity, thoughtfulness, self-respect, and Christian love for others, which will follow us throughout our lives.

You're not supposed to peek.

Now dear, try it next time with paper.

BUSINESS SUBJECTS

From Freshman year to Senior year, Business Subjects play a major role in the curriculum of the girls in D.C. Beginning with our first year, which includes Introduction to Business, the students are given a basic knowledge of the business world, a greater accuracy through Business Arithmetic in Sophomore year, a more definite view of justice through Business Law and a preparation for accounting in Bookkeeping in Senior year. D.C. is proud to add Data Processing to the curriculum which helps to fulfill our goal of becoming efficient secretaries.

SOCIAL STUDIES

To be able to understand what is happening in today's world, we must have knowledge of the past. In Asian and African Culture Studies, we are able to delve into other cultures. In World History and American History, we are taught the past which blends into the present. In Economics and Sociology, we are taught to think ahead for our future needs. The History Department, under the supervision of Sister Vera Marie, has enabled us to understand and to interpret more freely what is happening in our troubled world and how to prepare ourselves for a better future.

SPANISH

Those who take advantage of the Spanish course will not only have acquired another language, but they will have broadened their understanding of Spanish-speaking countries. The study of language and culture is made interesting and educational with the aid of film strips, tapes, movies, and records, under the direction of Sister Natalie Marie. As these girls go into the business world, their knowledge of Spanish will enable them to put their skills to use.

MATHEMATICS

Under the guidance of Sister Francis Loretta, the mathematics curriculum has prospered. As freshmen we become acquainted with Algebra. During sophomore year, the business aspect of mathematics is brought to life in the form of Business Arithmetic. For those of us who are college bound, Tenth- and Eleventh-Year Mathematics are available. Developing mathematical skills enables us to face our future with greater confidence.

MUSIC

The world of music is introduced to us in Dominican by Sister Christophine and Sister Joseph Maria. In this four-year course, Mozart, Chopin and Beethoven become a part of our lives. Music of the past and present, classical songs and operas are what we learn to appreciate and what will remain with us always because they help us to prize our heritage in music.

BIOLOGY

As freshmen, we venture forward into the unknown world of Science to experiment, to seek, and to find answers. Living in an age of scientific instruments, we learn to have an open mind, belief in what we are pursuing, careful judgement, and a strong concern for human welfare. Studying Biology gives the student a better insight of God's greatest masterpiece—the human body.

LIBRARY

With the help of Sister Louis Marie and Sister Leonard Marie, the library proves to be an escape into the world of novels, histories, and fashions. It is also an invaluable aid in our research for school projects, or just for self-improvement. The answers to many questions can be found in our library.

HEALTH

In our gym class, we are able to exert our potential energy by partaking in some invigorating exercises. Since it is rewarding to know something about self-defense, we are given a course in Karate. Under the expert leadership of Mrs. Fasano and Mrs. Weiss, we have been able to overcome our stiffness and to live a more active life.

ACTIVITIES

Out of Eternity,
This new day is born;
Into Eternity,
At night, will return.
Behold it aforetime
No eye ever did;
So soon it forever
From all eyes is hid
Here hath been dawning
Another blue day:
Think wilt thou let it
Slip useless away?

Thomas Carlyle

I'd better go powder my tongue.

Let's try that again from the beginning.

DRAMATICS

This year the main objective of Dramatics was the school play, Brother Goose. A great amount of time and effort was put into the production of this play. Under the direction of S. Rita, the play was a tremendous success. In addition to Brother Goose, the girls in Dramatics entertain the school with a Christmas play and various skits during the year.

Now remember, you can't read from the book on the night of the play.

But how can you go and leave your family defenseless!

RED CROSS YOUTH

The Red Cross Youth is a club dedicated to help those who are less fortunate. Its members work hard to perform small works of kindness such as dressing dolls, baking cookies, stuffing toy animals, hemming diapers, crib sheets, and blankets. Under the direction of Sister Anne Credan and Sister Rosilda, the Red Cross members are better able to serve their community.

ANGELICUS

Capturing the enchantment that is scattered through the halls of D. C. isn't an easy job. The staff of the Angelicus turns this annual task into a collection of memories for everyone who reads it.

On Friday afternoon, under the direction of Sister Mary Hope, the members meet and try to combine the feelings of the student body into one book.

For the freshmen, the Angelicus gives them a feeling of being part of D. C. To the sophomores, it means a chance to look back on all the fun and enthusiasm of their second year. The juniors look at the yearbook with anticipation of matching the superior job next year. For the seniors, it is the story of years that held so many wonderful memories.

STUDENT COUNCIL

A new arrival to this school year is the frequently spokèn of "Student Council." Formed and originated at the end of last year, this choice group of girls represent the student body. They take new ideas that are submitted to them and discuss them and bring them before the principal for her approval. These girls are not the new rulers of the school, but merely elected spokesmen. Student Council is here to help the student body voice their ideas and enable their dreams to become realities. Student Council's main function is to represent; not to domineer.

body gives its undivided attention to Lucille Molinari.

The council also sponsored Spirit Week to help boost school spirit.

MATH CLUB

Under the direction of S. Francis Loretta, the members of the Math Club solve many perplexing problems. In an effort to extend their mathematical knowledge, the members study math calculations which will help them in their future college studies. All the girls in the club enjoy the continuous puzzlement involved in solving the math problems presented to them.

SCIENCE CLUB

The Science Club has taken on a new look this year. Under the guidance of S. Grace Dominic, the members are being taught chemistry. The girls who are looking forward to college or nursing school find this good experience and develop an attitude of investigation and experimentation. The girls also enjoy films on latest scientific discoveries.

SPEECH CLUB

Under the direction of Sister Jude Thaddeus, Sister Genevieve and Sister Ellen Bernadette, Speech Club members are instructed in the art of speaking. Each member must have poise and a good speaking voice. Many girls have brought honor to our school by winning the contests they have entered.

S. Mauser, M. James, G. Manser, D. Kratt, K. Camaroto, J. Urban, S. M. Adalbert

WRITER'S CIRCLE

The members of the Writer's Circle prove every Wednesday that "the pen is mightier than the sword." The girls join the club to share ideas on how to improve their writing talents. They are guided by Sister M. Adalbert, who explains to them the techniques that a writer should use to have a work published. Many of the girls have had poems and essays entered in contests. Their work and effort in these contests have brought honor to all the girls in the school.

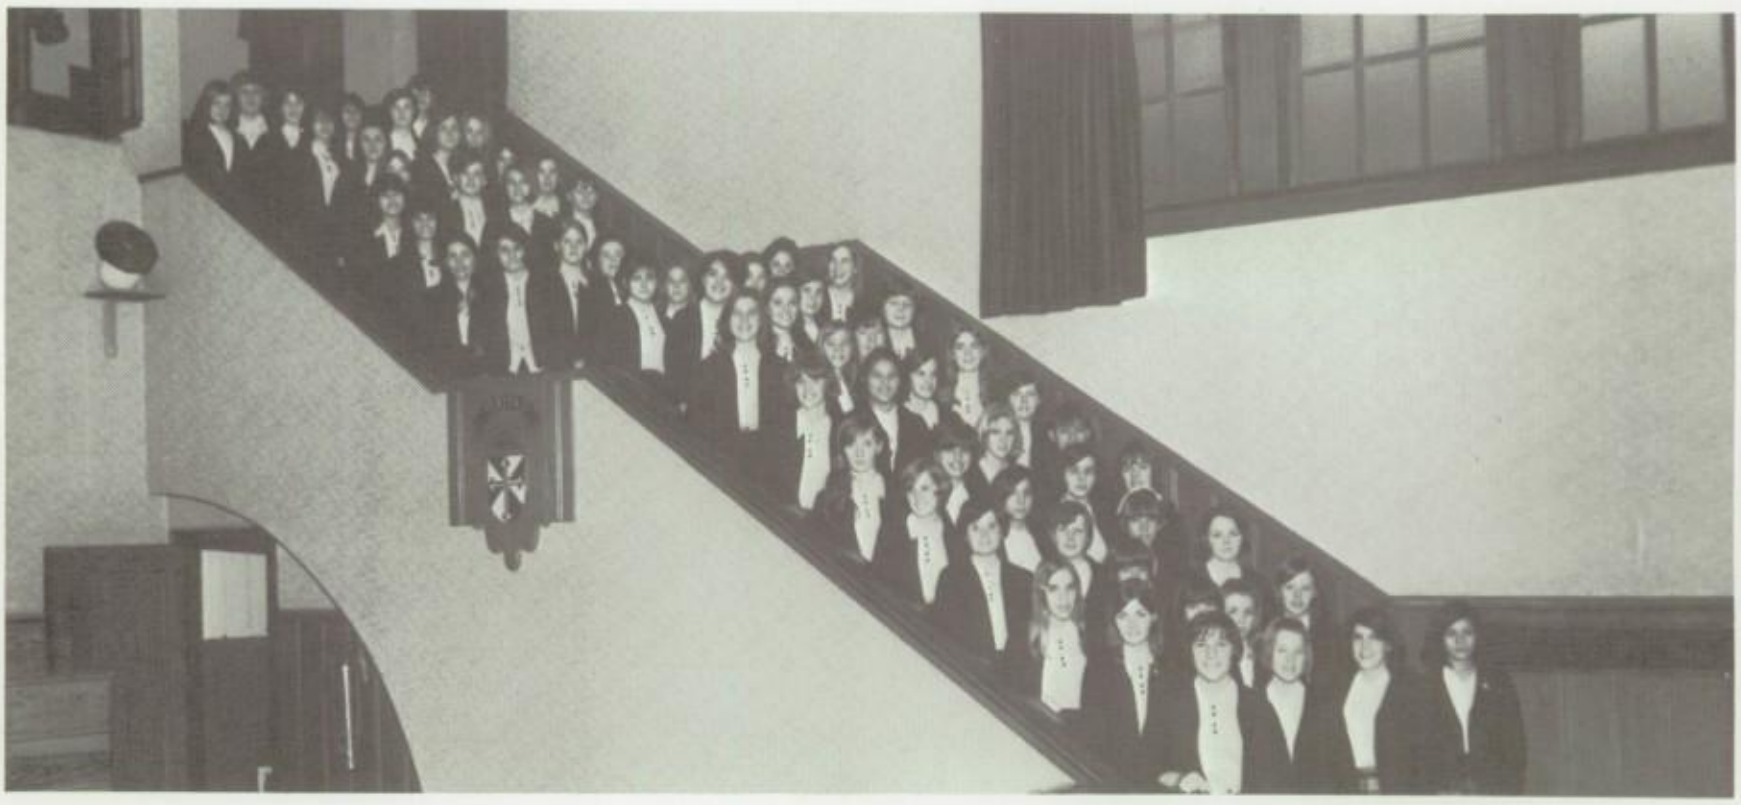
Y.C.S.

The Young Christian Student has a sincere concern about people and how they can share Christ's love with them. She feels deeply her responsibility to help in the work of rechristianization of the world. Y.C.S. meets weekly, under the direction of S. Bernadette Therese and S. Patricia, to try to widen their minds to the problems facing the world today. It offers a means of learning and maturing in the modern Christian world.



Y.C.S. members with their moderator Sister Bernadette Therese.

Members of Bowling Club.

BOWLING

The Bowling Club, for the more sports-minded girls at D.C., offers the girls a spirit of good sportsmanship, and also a chance to compete with each other. Under the guidance of Mrs. Fasano, they bowl every Wednesday at the Van Wyck Lanes.

ORCHESTRA

A sincere devotion to music is displayed by the splendid performance of our Orchestra. Almost every morning or afternoon, you can find the girls and their director, S. M. Christophine, O.P. in the auditorium practicing. They combine their time and talent to produce the music so familiar to all D.C. students. They work hard and their efforts are exhibited at the Spring Concert, our assemblies and parades.

Members of the Orchestra play for the National Honor Society induction.

COMMUNITY FOR CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP

Under the guidance of S. Edward Maureen, and S. Bernette, the Community for Christian Leadership meets once a week with the aim of trying to help the poor, the sick, and the underprivileged. During the year they sponsor many drives and activities such as the canned food drive and the Children's Christmas party.

CCL members pack canned goods collected during the drive they sponsored.

Members of Baton Club with their moderator, S. William Marie.

S. William Marie and her girls take over the cafeteria during one of their typical meetings.

CORPS

Under the direction of S. Charles Frances and S. Ann Marie, the girls of Corps help to keep the school efficient. The girls often give up part of their lunch to take over the late-pass desk, the students' rooms, and various jobs in the cafeteria. These girls are showing that they are proud of their school and are striving to make it better.

GLEE CLUB

This year D.C.'s Junior and Senior Glee Clubs have joined together to form a bigger and better Glee Club. Under the direction of S. Christophine and Mrs. Mullally, two accomplished musicians, the club meets on Tuesday and Thursday. At these meetings, the girls rehearse for numerous events during the year, most outstanding being the Spring Concert in May.

Sister Christophine gives a few pointers.

NATIONAL BUSINESS HONOR SOCIETY

S. George Bernard O.P. and Mrs. Joyce Diana guide the Monsignor Hald Chapter of the National Business Honor Society. The members of this organization are girls who are outstanding in their business subjects.

The members enjoy having business women, who have attained success in business, as guest speakers. The girls gain experience for the business world by being student secretaries to the faculty members. The Society's aim is to promote scholarship, to develop leadership, and to cultivate the proper professional attitudes.

SWIMMING

Although formed only last year, Dominican's swimming team has already brought honors to the school. Every Thursday afternoon, after school, the girls meet at the Jamaica YMCA for an enjoying day at the pool. Under the direction of Mrs. Thomas, the girls enter swim meets against other schools.

TRACK

The newest addition to the extra-curricular activities at Dominican is the Track Team. Although still in its early stages, the track team promises to bring honor and distinction to D.C. Under the direction of Mr. Mundy, the team works out and practices every Saturday, at Victory Field.

On your mark, get set, go!

COMMERCIALITE

The time has come to give credit where credit is due, and the Commercialite is deserving of it. Getting the Commercialite out is a joint effort of editors, reporters, and typists with the product an award-winning paper. The group meets once a week, under the guidance of Mrs. Antonucci, to discuss and plan future issues for the student body to enjoy.

Fathers listen attentively during a February meeting.

FATHERS' CLUB

On one Tuesday night of the month, the fathers of the student body meet, to discuss the problems of our school in which they can lend assistance. Among their duties are chaperoning our school dances, ushering for plays, planning the parents' parties and organizing the annual Father-Daughter Communion Breakfast. As you can tell from their varied duties, the Fathers' Club is a vital part of Dominican.

Síster Miriametta discusses important matters with Fathers' Club members.

LEGION OF MARY

Members of the Legion of Mary Strive for perfection first through prayer and secondly through extensive volunteer work. Under the guidance of S. Grace Dominic, O.P., the girls donate much of their time to the teaching of retarded children, tutoring at St. Monica's Parish, Candy Striping, filing at the Tuberculosis and Mental Health Association and many other charitable works.

S. Grace Dominic and members open a typical meeting of Legion of Mary.

SENIOR MEMORIES

Timid souls awash in a sea of brown.
Awaiting the fate;
destiny must be fulfilled—
Freshman in Dominican Commercial Gradual acceptance.
New and different concepts of high school.
Ever diligent, working hard to enrich our mind.
Apprentice ballerinas,
birds,
sea-weed and waves—
Exposure to our first Pageant.
Raised to the dignity of sophomores.
Introduction to skills that would make us
"top-notch" secretaries.
Silently sentencing typewriters to the scrap-iron factory.
Wiping a sweating brow after dictation at a record speed of 25 words a minute.
Progression.
Half-way
Junior year was upon us.
Opportunity ever-present
to demonstrate our ability.
Transformation
Elegantly dressed young ladies Proud.
Fragant scent of flowers at the Junior Prom Sunshine, Lollipops and Rainbows.

And then suddenly . . .

. . . We Were SENIORS

And we worked diligently

Danced to the music of the Quarrymen

Enjoyed speakers

Headed home

Celebrated Halloween

Decorated for the Semi- Formal

Enriched our minds

Feasted in the Cafeteria

Reflected silently

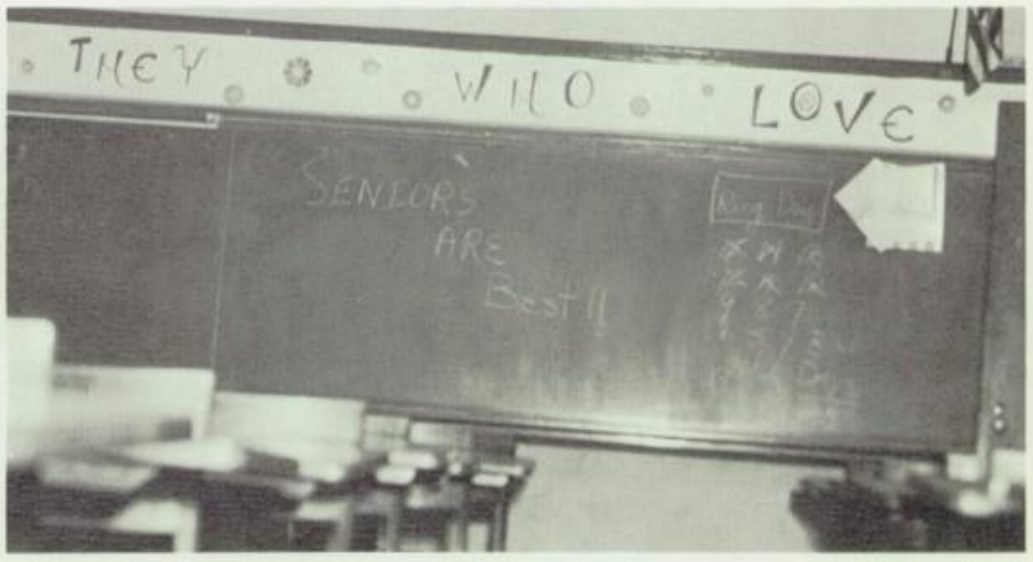
Became super athletes

Listened to grooming hints

. . . and the art of walking

Displayed our rank

Helped with daily chores



Took pride in our name.

SEMI-FORMAL

Caught up in the magic snowflake world of "Winter Wonderland," the Seniors energetically set before them the task of organizing their Semi-Formal. Each girl did her share of planning, decorating, and dreaming until she realized the boy next to her and the faint fragrance of flowers on her dress were real. After a marvelous evening, each girl carried home unforgettable memories.

WASHINGTON TRIP

A most memorable event of Senior Year would definitely be the Washington Trip. Bleary-eyed, but expectant, we stumbled aboard buses that would take us to our destination—the nation's capital. Once there, we silently relived great moments in the history of our country as we filed past monuments and shrines commemorating heroic deeds of ardent patriots. Men, whose tireless striving to preserve democratic ideals, made America what she is today. Pages from history textbooks were manifested in the lens of a camera, as we sought to capture the highlights of our journey. Although three short days is barely enough time to visit our heroic landmarks, we took home with us everlasting memories of time well spent.

RING DAY

Our Thanksgiving bounty was to be a small, gold ring that announced to all those within hearing or seeing distance that we were Dominican Commercial Seniors. More than just that, it was a tangible object that represented the quiet accomplishments of our past three years. As the moment grew near, each Senior delighted in slipping the ring on her finger and gazed upon it with admiration. To each, miles traversed in search of an ultimate goal.

RETREAT

Silent, searching faces off to find themselves in a week-end filled with spiritual renewal—renewal of newly-formed religious convictions and a reaffirming of those made so long ago. One finds herself through a long process of arduous searching and dialogue. Father Scully, a most benevolent retreat master, provided endless help in a sometimes seemingly futile search.

And the pleasant memory of things untold . . .
An afternoon at the Americana;
Annual Mother-Daughter Luncheon.
Soon after,
United spiritually and wholly at the Father-Daughter Communion Breakfast.
Tired bones, aching muscles yet superior athletes.
Exhibition of gymnastic accomplishments,
Sports Night.
Crash diets, empty bank accounts, anxious last minute preparations precede the long-dreamed of Senior Prom.
Sparkling eyes, unforgettable moments, flowers hereafter
cherished.
Morning of nostalgia and remembrance.
Senior Class Day approaches.
More meaningful
Event of events
Graduation Day.
Diploma in hand,
Hint of fear; head held high
We, the Class of 1969, leave our mark in the annals of Dominican Commercial as we pass through its doors with bated breath to the world outside.

TOMORROW'S PRAYER

Let us pray that strength and courage abundant be given to all who work for a world of reason and understanding; that the good that lies in every graduate's heart
may day by day be magnified; that we will come to see more clearly not that which divides us, but that which unites us;
that the true spirit of TOMORROW—its joy, its beauty, its hope, and above all, its abiding faith may live among us;
that the blessings of peace by ours—
the peace to build and grow, to live in harmony and sympathy with others and to plan for the future with confidence.
